GENERAL ORDER
NO. 09-96

April 2, 1996

I. AUTHORITY: Approval of the Commander, DCMC

II. REFERENCE:

- A. HQ DLA General Order No. 02-96, dated January 29, 1996.
- B. HQ DLA General Order No. 36-95, dated December 19, 1995.

III. Pursuant to cited authority and effective April 7, 1996 the Defense Contract Management Command (DCMC) Assessment Center is established as a principal staff element of the Defense Contract Management District East (DCMDE).

A. The mission, objectives, and all related resources of the DCMDE Performance Assessment Review (PAR) Team transfer in place to the Assessment Center. The mission, objectives, and all related resources of the Contract Management Review (CMR) Team transfer in place from the DLA Administrative Support Center (DASC). The assessment mission, objectives, and related resources transfer in place from the Operations Support Groups in DCMDs West, East, and International to the Assessment Center. The PAR and CMR teams are disestablished.

B. The Assessment Center is established to bring to the Command a standard approach in performing assessments, to execute policies related to assessment, and to be responsible for designing and executing products and services in accordance with those policies.

IV. The DCMC Assessment Center will receive functional and operational direction from the Chief, Performance Assessment Team (AQBC), Business Management. Financial and personnel management, counsel, and EEO support and services will be provided by DCMDE. All other administrative support will continue to be provided under existing arrangements.
