GENERAL ORDER
NO. 17-96

July 9, 1996

- I. AUTHORITY: 1993 Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) decision.
- II. REFERENCE: HQ DLA General Order No. 29-95, dated October 30, 1995.
- III. Effective May 31, 1995 the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) and Defense Electronics Supply Center (DESC) military chain of command was modified to direct the DESC Commander to report to DLA through the Defense Supply Center Columbus (DSCC) (then the Defense Construction Supply Center (DCSC)) regarding official military reports and correspondence. All Installation and Inventory Control Point (ICP) authorizations and responsibilities were retained by the DESC Commander.
- IV. Effective June 1, 1996, the Defense Electronics Supply Center (DESC) ICP is disestablished and the mission, objectives, and resources of the ICP transfer to DSCC. Commencing June 1, 1996, DSCC will issue any Activity General Orders effecting appropriate organizational placement of the residual ICP functions and operations at the Gentile Station installation, as necessary.
- V. DSCC administrative and facility support functions of Gentile Station for DLA personnel and organizations located at Gentile Station, will continue under existing arrangements until functions have moved to Columbus, or until the Dayton facility is returned to the Air Force or retroceded to the Gentile Station Reuse Authority.
