GENERAL ORDER
NO. 30-96

September 30, 1996

I. AUTHORITY: Approval of the Deputy Director, Acquisition.

II. REFERENCES:

- A. HQ DLA General Order No. 09-96, dated April 2, 1996.
- B. HQ DLA General Order No. 02-96, dated January 29, 1996.
- C. HQ DLA General Order No. 36-95, dated December 19, 1995.

III. Pursuant to cited authority and effective September 16, 1996, the Defense Contract Management Command (DCMC) Assessment Center is transferred to the Defense Contract Management District International (DCMDI) as a principal staff element of DCMDI. The mission, objectives and all related resources of the DCMC Assessment Center will be transferred in place.

IV. The DCMC Assessment Center is established to bring to the Command a standard approach in performing assessments, to execute policies related to assessment, and to be responsible for designing and executing products and services in accordance with those policies.

V. The DCMC Assessment Center will receive functional and operational direction, to include policy guidance and performance appraisals, from the Chief, Performance Assessment Team (AQBC). Financial, personnel management, counsel, EEO, and centralized administrative support and services will be provided by the DLA Administrative Support Center. All other administrative support will continue under existing agreements.
