

Lt. Col. Krista M. Hoffman, United States Army

Commander, DLA Distribution Europe

Army Lt. Col. Krista Martina Hoffman assumed command of DLA Distribution Europe June 27, 2014.

Hoffman is a native of northern New Jersey and was commissioned into the Ordnance Corps in December 1995. She holds a Bachelor's degree in engineering from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and a Master's degree from the U.S. Command and General Staff College.

Hoffman spent the majority of her Army career overseas, including two tours in Germany and one tour each in Belgium, South Korea, Hawaii, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia. She completed two combat tours in Iraq and one in Afghanistan.

Her key staff assignments include Battalion S1, S3, support operations officer, and executive officer. She completed assignments as the assistant executive officer to the Army Materiel Command deputy commander and aide-de-camp to the AMC-Southwest Asia commander. Her command assignments include detachment commander, Operation Desert Watch, Southwest Asia as a second lieutenant; company commander in the 25th infantry division; and company commander of the NATO Special Operations Support Company. She most recently completed a tour as a deployment planner for NATO.

Hoffman has received numerous awards and decorations, but is most proud of her Meritorious Volunteer Service Medal and her Bronze Star Medal with two oak leaf clusters.
