

DLA LOGISTICS INFORMATION SERVICES UPDATE

Volume 2, Issue 2

March/ April 2015

Do your eWorkplace links no longer work?

In January 2015, DLA began migrating from SharePoint 2007 to SharePoint 2010. After the upgrade, eWorkplace (eWP) will integrate Microsoft web applications, enabling users to easily customize their SharePoint sites and web pages. Other enhancements include reduced CAC prompts, the ability for multiple users to manage the same document simultaneously and a new footer to provide additional options for navigation.

With these upgrades, come minor inconveniences for the user.

Links and Uniform Resource Locators (URLs) that are saved on your computer or in your web browser's Favorites, will no longer work. These links and URLs will need to be converted, using the URL translator tool, which can be found on the DLA eWP landing page. If you continue to experience issues, please contact the DLA Enterprise Help Desk at 855-352-0001 (CONUS) or DSN 94-855-352-0001 (OCONUS). DLA Enterprise HelpDesk E-mail EHD Portal Website

DLA Log Info Svcs Conference and Expo Season

As part of DLA Logistics Information Services' continuing effort to reach forward facing customers, representatives from the Customer Advocate team periodically attend conferences and expos around the country. These events reach a large audience from military service members to civilian vendors. Check the right panel to see if an advocate will be at an event near you!
