

FED LOG Sponsorship Information

FED LOG is a 'take-with' mobile media product and contains technical data, proprietary manufacturers' data, trade secrets, and stock numbers codified by countries other than the United States (U.S.), access to which is under the control of the Department of Defense (DoD) and identified as For Official Use Only (FOUO). The FOUO data contained in FED LOG falls under legal control of the U.S. Government and is requires safeguarding and dissemination controls pursuant to and consistent with law, regulations and government-wide policies. Any and all data out-puts are to be managed in accordance with the applicable DoD records management laws and regulations. All discs must be rendered inoperable prior to disposal or recycling. All data is considered sensitive and access is limited to authorized users.

Please refer to the For Official Use Only for an explanation of how this applies to FED LOG Unauthorized distribution of this product or its contents is strictly prohibited and may be punishable by civil and criminal penalties. Proprietary manufacturers' data and NON-US Stock Numbers are contained on the disc(s), neither of which are releasable to the general public, and are provided only on a need to know basis.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for FED LOG, the private sector company must be under contract with the U.S. Government or a NATO or NATO sponsored country to do research, perform repairs on Government equipment (ships, planes, etc.), develop a weapon system, develop technical publications, and/or provide ADP/IT/Logistics support for the U.S. Government.

If a specific contract or grant requires a private sector company or organization to carry out the duties and functions of the United States (U.S.), certain information may be disclosed to them. The specific contract must require the Contractor to assist in the performance of governmental functions of the U.S.

The Government Contractor or Grantee must be authorized in writing by their Procurement Contracting Officer (PCO) to use and purchase of FED LOG. FED LOG must have control access and limited to the used a specific contract or grant in support of the United States Government; as a restricted product FED LOG must not be used for any other purpose. This means that the contractor can only use FED LOG for the fulfillment and/or to perform the service under the specified contract.

PROCUREMENT CONTRACTING OFFICER

Only Procuring/Procurement Contracting Officer (PCO) from the issuing government service or agency of the specific contract has the authority to sponsor a Government Contractor to use and purchase FED LOG. The PCO is the authoritative source for the contract, and therefore determines whether FED LOG is required to fulfill the contract. The use is limited to the fulfillment of the sponsored contract per the Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA).

FED LOG Sponsorship is at the discretion and prerogative of the PCO. The PCO may revoke this sponsorship at any time. The FED LOG access is solely the responsibility of the PCO. The PCO authorizes the Government Contractor to receive, use and purchase the FED LOG product and its disposition.

It is the PCO's responsibility to ensure the contractor is aware of the FOUO Protocol including the non-releasability and disposal requirements of the FED LOG discs and products. This awareness is to be established prior to the initial delivery and for the annual renewal. The PCO is responsible to ensure the contractor protects the FED LOG data, FED LOG product and the limited access to FED LOG. The PCO is responsible for the security, use and disposal of all monthly copies.

The PCO is responsible for the annual renewal and re-authorization of the FED LOG Subscription. Any changes to sponsored FED LOG subscription to authorized mailing address, the media or quantity of FED LOG must be in writing to the Subscription Team by the PCO. The PCO may delegate renewal authority to the Administrative Contracting Officer (ACO) as specified in the original sponsorship letter.

FED LOG SPONSORSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Each contract requiring FED LOG requires its own sponsorship. The FED LOG sponsorship is not transferable from one contract to another. If the sponsored subscription has lapse for nine months or more without renewal a new sponsorship will be required.
