

Hall of Fame Inductees

ALFRED E. CARDONE

Is inducted into the Defense Personnel Support Center Hall of Fame this sixteenth day of June 1995 for his extraordinary leadership and support as Assistant Chief of Contracting in the Subsistence Directorate - and for his continuous outstanding mission support throughout his tenure at DPSC - from 1958 to 1990. Mr. Cardone managed the acquisition process and resources of one of the largest and most diversified procurement missions within the Defense Logistics Agency. His expert management and insight were responsible for implementing a number of programs which benefited DPSC's customers, including United States Beef for Europe which contracted for large quantities of beef, and the Commercial Products program which improved how food is purchased. He also helped shorten the order-ship time to Europe by 15 days resulting in fresher products for European commissary customers.
