

Hall of Fame Inductees

Sarah DiDonato

Sarah DiDonato was inducted into the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia Hall of Fame this twenty-first day of October 2009 for her continuous outstanding mission support from 1969 through 2007. Ms. DiDonato distinguished herself as an intelligent, gifted leader during her years of service to the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia. Her contributions have been many and significant. She led the Clothing and Textiles Supply Chain in implementing initiatives that yielded high taxpayer savings, outstanding service and improved readiness. Her innovative and practical business solutions were evident throughout several major challenges in Clothing and Textiles to include: the introduction of the new Army combat uniform, the Army Direct Ordering program, supporting the recruit induction centers and reengineering the process for managing organizational clothing and individual equipment (OCIE). She guided the organization with a leadership style that enabled all to work as a well-integrated team. She was a leader of the highest caliber and facilitated an environment of innovation trust and cooperation. Ms. DiDonato's distinguished record of performance clearly sets her apart from her peers and reflects great credit upon herself, the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia, and the Defense Logistics Agency.
