

The logo consists of a dark blue rectangular box with a thin black border. Inside the box, the words "Hall of Fame Inductees" are written in a white, sans-serif font, centered horizontally and vertically.EDWARD SCHWAMM

Is inducted into the Defense Industrial Supply Center Hall of Fame this twelfth day of December 1997 for his extraordinary leadership and support as an Inventory Management Specialist in the Directorate of Supply Operations and for his continuous outstanding mission support throughout his tenure at DISC from 1983 to 1990. Mr. Schwamm was a systems pioneer who worked in conjunction with the DLA Central Design Agency employees to develop the Automated Inventory Management System (AIMS). Through his personal vision, he was able to convince the DLA information system community of the value of the growing new technology of Local Area Networking (LAN) as a means for bringing automation to the desktop.
