Major General Henry T. Glisson
USA

Is inducted into the Defense Personnel Support Center Hall of Fame this third day of June 1997 for his extraordinary leadership and support as DPSC's 24th Commander from 1993 to 1994. General Glisson spent his tour, and his career, improving service to his customers – the U.S. Armed Forces. He also made heroic efforts to assist displaced workers following closure of DPSC's Clothing Factory, and DPSC's anticipated relocation to Northeast Philadelphia. At the same time, he implemented DPSC's reengineering efforts for creating partnerships between government and industry. His efforts were responsible for DPSC winning numerous awards for excellence in subsequent years.
