

Hall of Fame Inductees

MAJOR GENERAL OLIVER C. HARVEY U.S. ARMY (RET)

Is posthumously inducted into the Defense Personnel Support Center (DPSC) Hall of Fame this twelfth day of August 1994 for his extraordinary leadership and support as Commander of the Military Clothing and Textile Supply Agency, the Defense Clothing and Textile Supply Center, and then the Defense Personnel Support Center, from 1962 to 1966. General Harvey oversaw the complex consolidation of the Defense Medical Supply Center in Brooklyn, N.Y., and the Defense Subsistence Supply Center in Chicago, Ill., with the Defense Clothing and Textile Supply Center in Philadelphia, Pa., to form what became DPSC. This significant accomplishment created one central organization which provided the food, clothing and medical supplies to America's fighting forces worldwide.
