

Hall of Fame Inductees

VERA E. GIANNINI

Is inducted into the Defense Personnel Support Center Hall of Fame this sixteenth day of June 1995 for her extraordinary leadership and support as Associate Director of the Small Business Office - and for her continuous outstanding mission support throughout her tenure at DPSC - from 1956 to 1993. Ms. Giannini's unparalleled knowledge and effective management earned her a primary leadership role within the Defense Logistics Agency and the Defense Department's small business community. She also expertly managed and operated DLA's largest socio-economic program, and was awarded the DLA's Javits-Wagner-O'Day Program Manager. She took the lead in developing and operating the world's first Business Counseling Center - designed to educate, counsel, and assist businesses, especially in adapting their operations to electronic commerce and electronic data interchange.
