The EPA (Economic Price Adjustment) cited in previous modification SPM3S112DZ122P00204 contained errors in the calculations of the adjusted pricing and is hereby revised as follows:

In accordance with EPA (Economic Price Adjustment) Clauses 52.217-1001 and 52.216-9061 incorporated into this contract by reference, the Cheese and Butter commodity portion of the three Cheese Spreads items and Peanut Butter used in the three Peanut Butter Spreads items are subject to price adjustments. The Cheese adjustments are based on price changes to Cheese Barrels 40# Blocks and Butter Grade AA as published weekly by Chicago Mercantile Exchange and Cash Trading in the USDA Daily Market News. The Peanut Butter adjustments are based on price changes to the Bureau Of Labor Statistics (BLS) Monthly Producer Price Index (PPI).

The price calculations resulted in a net overall increase from the base year unit pricing for each of the three Cheese Spread items which was 2.59% for Cheese and a decrease of -21.95% for Butter at time of award. There was a net overall increase from the base year unit pricing for each of the three peanut Butter items which was 21.87% at time of award. This was due the recent market volatility of these ingredients in 2013. The calculations are based on the portion of the contractor's unit price subject to EPA submitted in the contractor's proposal prior to award. The adjusted unit prices are as follows:
