

APPENDIX A-83

ADDRESS CHECK CODES FOR DATA PROCESSING

1. Number of characters: One.
2. Type of code: Alphanumeric.
3. Explanation: The Address Check Code is used during the processing of documents output from SAMMS to identify where in the document the address of the recipient is located.
4. Source: Document Control Table.
5. The following codes are assigned:

CODE	DEFINITION
1	Address identified by the Routing Identifier Code (RIC) in pos. 4-6.
2	Address identified by Service Code in pos. 30 and Distribution Code in pos. 54.
3	Address identified by Service Code in pos. 30 and Fund Code in pos. 52.
4	Address identified by Catalog Activity Code (CAC) identified in either pos. 4-5 or 8-9 as indicated by the DIC.
5	Address identified by the RIC in pos. 67-69.
6	Address identified by the Activity Address Code (AAC) in pos. 45-50.
7	Address identified by the AAC in pos. 30-35.
8	Address identified by the RIC in pos. 71-73.
9	Address identified by the AAC in pos. 84-89.
A	Address identified by the RIC in pos. 54-56.
B	Address identified by the RIC in pos. 10-12.
D	Address identified by Service/Agency Activity Code in pos. 6-7.
X	Exit does not check.

6. References:
  - a. Chapter 30, SAMMS Data Processes.
  - b. Appendix F-53, Document Control Table Printout.