DLA-LPO

GENERAL ORDER
NO. 37-85

25 Sep 85

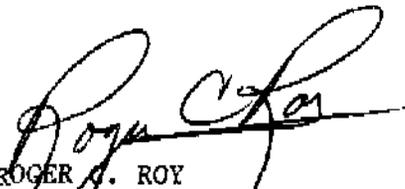

I. Authority: DLA-D approval of DLA-LPO Staff Summary Sheet dated 2 August 1985, subject: Capitalization of the Systems Engineering Division (DAPRO-S) by DSAC.

II. Pursuant to cited authority and effective 1 October 1985 the Systems Engineering Division (DAPRO-S) of the DLA Advanced ADP/T Plans and Research Office, a Management Support Activity of DLA-ZW, is disestablished and mission and functions are transferred to the DLA Systems Automation Center (DSAC).

III. The Acquisition Management Office is established within DSAC to perform systems engineering and systems architecture aspects of the DLA ADP/T Technology Assessment Program, acquisition and implementation of the DLA Logistics Systems Modernization Program (DLSMP) and program control on both the ADP/T technology assessment and DLSMP programs. The Acquisition Management Office will be structured as follows: Systems Engineering Division with a Systems Architecture Branch and a Selection and Acquisition Branch; an Implementation Division consisting of a Transition Branch and a Development Branch; and a Project Control Division.

IV. General Order 22-84, dated 26 June 1984, is amended as follows: Paragraph IV is amended to read: Administrative support for DAPRO elements located at Cameron Station, Alexandria, VA will be provided by the DLA Administrative Support Center.
