GENERAL ORDER
NO. 7-87

13 May 1987

I. Authority: DIA-D approval of DIA-LPO Staff Summary Sheet, dated 28 April, 1987, subject: Reorganization of the Defense Automatic Addressing System Office (DAASO).

II. Pursuant to cited authority and effective 3 May 1987, the Defense Automatic Addressing System Office located at Dayton, Ohio, and its western operation located at Tracy, California, is realigned as follows:

a. The Office of Planning and Resource Management (DAAS-VP) is established and assigned responsibility for overall administration and control of DAASO policies, plans, programs and resource management.

b. The Logistics Division (DAAS-VL) is established and assigned responsibility for design, development and maintenance of AIS application systems to support the Military Services' and Defense Agencies' requirements for DAAS logistics processing systems. The Logistics Systems Branch (DAAS-VLL), the AIS Development Branch (DAAS-VLA) and the Data Base Administration Branch (DAAS-VLD) are established as subordinate branches of the Logistics Division.

c. The Technology Division (DAAS-VS) is established and assigned responsibility for design, development and maintenance of all automated telecommunications systems and related software for DAASO host and network systems. The Systems Engineering Branch (DAAS-VSE), Technical Systems Branch (DAAS-VST) and International Logistics Systems Branch (DAAS-VSI) are established as subordinate branches of the Technology Division.

d. The Eastern Operations Division (DAAS-VE) is established and assigned responsibility for the management and operation of assigned Automated Data Processing Equipment (ADPE) and Automated Information Systems (AISs). The DAAS Operations Branch (DAAS-VEO), Production Control Branch (DAAS-VEP) and Telecommunications Control Center Branch (DAAS-VET) are established as subordinate branches of the Eastern Operations Division.

e. The Western Operations Division (DAAS-VW), located at Tracy, California, is established and assigned responsibility for the management and operations of assigned ADPE and AISs. The DAAS Operations Branch (DAS-VWO), AIS Management Branch (DAAS-VWA) and Telecommunications Control Center Branch (DAAS-VWT) are established as subordinate branches of the Western Operations Division.

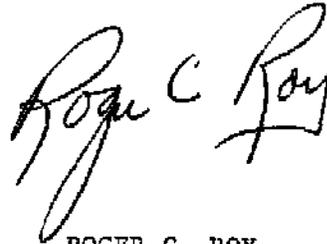

f. The missions, functions and personnel in DAASO will be reassigned to the new divisions and branches.

g. DLA General Order No. 36-84, dated 8 Aug 84 is rescinded.

III. Administrative support for DAASO, Dayton, Ohio, will be provided by the Defense Electronics Supply Center and support for the DAASO Western Operations Division, Tracy, California, will be provided by the Defense Depot Tracy, California.
