GENERAL ORDER
NO. 40-90

- I. Reference: DLA-LP General Order No. 24-90, dated 29 August 1990.
- II. Authority: DLA-DD approval of Staff Summary Sheet dated 11 Dec 90, subject: Program Management Organization to Accomplish Consumable Item Transfer (CIT) Resulting from DMRD 926.
- III. Pursuant to cited authority and effective 27 December 1990, the Consumable Item Transfer Program Management Office (CITPMO), which was established by referenced General Order, is redesignated the Consumable Item Management Office (CIMO), DLA-OM. This office will operate under the control of the Executive Director, Supply Operations Directorate.
- IV. Under the management, direction, and control of the Program Manager, the CIMO assists in the execution of responsibilities for the planning and management of the transfer of consumable items from the Services and other agencies to DLA.
- V. The CIMO will be in effect until all major actions associated with the transfer of consumables from the Services and other agencies are complete. The Program Management Charter for CIMO will be reviewed annually and updated as required.
- VI. Administrative support will be provided by the DLA Administrative Support Center.
