a. “We Are DLA” business rules. The business rules guide the phased execution of the “We Are DLA” initiative and ensure the application of stewardship principles consistently across the Agency. DLA organizations desiring an exception to the “We Are DLA” business rules must obtain a waiver from the “We Are DLA” Stewardship Oversight Committee. The following should be brought to the committee for review and approval:

(1) All requests for an exception to the business rules to purchase any items, other than signs, before supplies are exhausted or natural wear and tear requires replacement.

(2) All requests to purchase additional decorative items (not necessarily replacements) bearing the new organizational names;

(3) All requests to purchase or produce items containing a new name which are not specifically addressed in the business rules.
b. “We Are DLA” Communication Campaign and “We Are DLA” Communication Playbook. These two documents aid in communicating the “We Are DLA” strategy and strong stewardship message. The “We Are DLA” Communication Playbook is a more concise version of the “We Are DLA” Communication Campaign designed specifically for senior leaders. The long-term success of the “We Are DLA” initiative rests, in part, on its ability to communicate its cohesive nature consistently and comprehensively to customers, stakeholders, and employees.

c. DLA Style Guide. Ensures consistency and clarity of DLA graphic images and the messages inherent in those depictions. Areas covered in the DLA Style Guide include use of the DLA emblem, heraldic and official insignia, stationary, presentations, flags, outreach and marketing publications, exhibits, signs, and badges. Requests for exceptions must be submitted to the DLA Strategic Communications Office.

d. “We Are DLA” Change Management Plan. Outlines the steps necessary for a smooth cultural transition and consistent execution across the Agency. DLA Human Resource Office (J1) provides overall change management coordination and oversees the “We Are DLA” Change Management Team that supports ongoing “We Are DLA” initiatives and reinforcement campaigns. DLA J codes and field organizations shall support ongoing “We Are DLA” initiatives to ensure employees understand the changes and provide answers to questions related to the change.

e. DLA Culture/Climate Survey. Tracks employees’ attitudes about their work environment at DLA. Survey data analysis is used to assess achievement of Agency goals related to changes brought about by “We Are DLA” and develop action plans to drive continued improvement.

f. DLA Correspondence Guide. Incorporates “We Are DLA” decisions and intent, and provides the proper correspondence guidelines.

g. DLA Sign Policy. Ensures consistency of signage and use across the Agency while adhering to host-installation standards. Requests for exceptions shall be submitted to the “We Are DLA” Stewardship Oversight Committee.

h. DLA Flag Policy. Specifies which DLA activities are authorized an organization flag, type, and number of flags. Requests for exceptions shall be submitted to the “We Are DLA” Stewardship Oversight Committee.
