April 4, 1997

MEMORANDUM FOR PROCLTR DISTRIBUTION LIST

SUBJECT: Interest Rates

The attached tables show the latest quarterly and semiannual interest rates established by the Secretary of the Treasury for pre- and postaward Government contracts. Quarterly Section 6621 interest rates (Attachment 1) are used to compute interest on overpayments or underpayments for Government contract price adjustments, including defective pricing. The overpayment rate will remain at eight percent (8%). The underpayment rate will remain at nine percent (9%). The rates are the same as the prior period. These rates are effective for the quarter April 1 - June 30, 1997.

The semiannual Renegotiation Act (Public Law 92-41) interest rate (Attachment 2) is used to compute interest applicable to determinations under the Contract Disputes Act, the Prompt Payment Act, and for standard clauses requiring interest determinations. The Cost Accounting Standards (CAS) affected by this rate are cost of money for facilities capital (CAS 414); present value of future benefits for deferred compensation (CAS 415); the alternate rate for present value of future payments for losses for insurance costs (CAS 416); and the cost of money for capital assets under construction (CAS 417). A six and three eighths percent (6.375%) rate was established for the period January 1 - June 30, 1997.

This PROCLTR is effective immediately and expires when superseded, but in no event later than one year after the issue date. PROCLTR 96-50 is hereby canceled. Questions should be directed to LCDR Miguel A. Zayas or Jerry Gilbert, MMPPP, (703) 767-1357/1350, DSN 427-1357/1350.
