Who We Are:

DLA Aviation is the aviation demand and supply manager for Defense Logistics Agency with more than 4,300 civilian and military personnel in 22 locations across the continental U.S. and – as of 2023 – at Kadena Air Base in Okinawa, Japan. DLA Aviation supports more than 13,500 joint aircraft, 450 intercontinental ballistic missiles and a host of other weapons systems. The activity is the U.S. military's integrated material manager for more than 1.8 million national stock number items, industrial retail supply and depot-level reparable acquisitions.

DLA Aviation plays a pivotal role in supporting our Army, Air Force, Marine Corps, Navy, Space Force and Coast Guard by providing targeted solutions and full-spectrum logistics support.

DLA's Mission:

Deliver readiness and lethality to the Warfighter Always and support our nation through quality, proactive global logistics.

DLA's Vision:

As the Nation's Combat Logistics Support Agency and valued partner, we are innovative, adaptable, agile, and accountable – focused on the Warfighter Always.

What We Do

- Weapon Systems Support — engine components; bearings; airframes; electrical cable assemblies
- Industrial Support — maintain retail supply and storage in direct support of aircraft maintenance depot production lines
- Procurement Agent — strategic acquisition of consumable and depot-level repairable material
- Industrial Plant Equipment — full range of maintenance services to include repair, rebuilding and acquisition of all types of industrial machinery (e.g. lathes, milling machines)
- Maps — maps, charts, publications and digital geospatial products for all DoD activities
- Kitting — flexible kit designs, service and support, oriented to maintenance users, by end-item for specific tasks
- Environmental — green products; re-refined motor oil; environmental products catalog; ozone-friendly chemicals; recycled antifreeze and remanufactured toner cartridges
- Nuclear Enterprise Support — provide focused nuclear and space enterprise customer support through synchronized coordination and communication across DLA
