OFFICE COMMUNICATIONS TOOLS BETWEEN

DLA Philadelphia (includes all bargaining unit employees for DLA Components co-located at the Naval Support Activity – Philadelphia Installation)

AND

American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE), Local 62

Section 1 – General

- A. Article 31 – Office Communications Tools, Paragraph 6, of the Master Labor Agreement (MLA) between DLA and Council 169, dated September 2022, allows for local negotiations for use of accountability rosters. Accordingly, the parties agree to the use of accountability rosters as set forth below.

Section 2 – Accountability Rosters

- A. The Employer and the Union agree that accountability rosters are beneficial to ensuring that all employees who are scheduled to be on duty can be accounted for.
- B. All employees who elect a flexible work schedule will sign-in upon arrival and sign-out when their workday ends. The preferred method of communication is at the sole discretion of the supervisor.
