

DLA Distribution Albany, Georgia

Mr. William Harrington

Deputy Director

William Harrington is a native of Compton, California, and is a retired Air Force Chief Master Sergeant. He began his logistics career in 1988 as an Inventory Management Specialist, where he served 30 years in progressively difficult and prestigious assignments, before retiring in 2018.

Harrington's logistics experience includes tours in a wide range of positions in the Supply and Logistics Readiness arena to include the United Kingdom, Japan, Korea, Afghanistan, and the White House.

His civilian career began in 2018 with the Department of Homeland Security in Tucker, Georgia, as the Operations Support Specialist. In May 2018, he quickly transitioned to a leadership position with Homeland Security in Washington D.C., where he served as Supervisory Data Analysis and Reporting Branch. In May 2019, he was hired by DLA Albany, Georgia to serve as Deputy Director.

Harrington holds a bachelor's degree in business management and a master's degree in management and organizational leadership. He holds numerous certifications to include Project Management, Six Sigma, Crucial Conversations for Senior Managers and Executive Leadership and Management. He successfully completed the Advance Program in Logistics and Technology at the University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill.

His military awards and decoration include the Bronze Star, Defense Meritorious Service Medal (2), Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Air Force Accommodation Award (2), Joint Service Achievement Medal and the National Defense Service Medal Afghanistan.

