

DLA Distribution Susquehanna, Pennsylvania

Captain Andy Henwood

Commander

Navy Capt. Andy Henwood is a native of Media, Pennsylvania, and graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in History. He has completed the Executive Development Program at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business and holds a master's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in finance from Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

After successful completion of course work at the Navy Supply Corps School in Athens, Georgia, Henwood was assigned to USS SAN JACINTO (CG-56) as Assistant Supply Officer from 2002 through 2004. Collateral duties included Officer-In-Charge of the ship's Visit, Board, Search and Seizure team, which conducted boardings of terrorist-suspected ships in the Eastern Mediterranean. During deployment, USS SAN JACINTO participated in Tomahawk strike missions in the opening hours of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

From 2004 to 2005, he served as Fuels Officer, Naval Support Facility, Diego Garcia, British Indian Ocean Territory. Duties included fuel support for U.S. Air Force bombing missions in Afghanistan as well as support of tsunami relief operations in Indonesia. Henwood served as Branch Head for Common Avionics and Flag Aide to the Commander, Naval Inventory Control Point, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from 2005 to 2007. From 2007 to 2009, he served as Supply Officer aboard USS COLE (DDG-67). During his tenure, USS COLE earned three consecutive awards of the Blue "E" for Logistics Excellence, the Battle "E", and was selected as winner of the Captain Edward F. Ney Memorial Award for excellence in Food Service.

From 2009 to 2012, Henwood was assigned as Executive Officer of Defense Logistics Agency Distribution Susquehanna, Pennsylvania, the largest warehousing and distribution center in Defense Department. He served as Director of the P-8/P-3 Integrated Weapons System Team at Naval Supply Systems Command, Weapon Systems Support, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from 2014-2017, and was then assigned as Chief, Readiness Division in the Subsistence Supply Chain at DLA Troop Support from 2017-2019. From 2019-2021 he served as Supply Officer aboard USS DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER (CVN-69), completing back-to-back deployments to 6th/5th Fleets including a record-setting 206 consecutive days at sea in support of Operations Inherent Resolve, Freedom Sentinel and Final Countdown. His team was twice awarded the Blue "E" for Logistics Excellence, the Battle "E", and garnered the Ney Award. He most recently served as Director of Aviation Operations at NAVSUP Weapon Systems Support, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Henwood is a member of the Defense Acquisition Corps and is a Joint Qualified Officer. His team earned the prestigious Admiral Stan Arthur Logistics Team of the Year award for innovation and excellence for 2016 (NAVSUP Logistics Cell Team) and was also selected as NAVSUP's Logistics Team of the Year. A qualified Navy Parachutist, he has completed Army Airborne/Jump training and is a qualified Naval Aviation and Surface Warfare Supply Officer. His decorations include the Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal (2 awards), Meritorious Service Medal (2 awards), Navy Commendation Medal (3 awards), Joint Service Achievement Medal (2 awards), Navy Achievement Medal and various unit and service awards.