

DLA Distribution Korea

Ms. Travy Owens

Deputy Commander

Ms. Travy Owens assumed duties as the Deputy Commander for DDDK on 1 June 2025. In this role, she provides strategic leadership and oversight of distribution operations in support of United States Forces Korea missions across the Korean Peninsula.

Prior to her current position, Ms. Owens served as DDDK's Accountable Officer from October 2022 to June 2025 where she managed 60 million dollars of materiel, enabling warfighter readiness.

Her career reflects over four decades of dedicated services to the Department of Defense. From February 2017 to October 2022, she served as an Inventory Management Specialist at Patrick Air Force Base, where she expertly managed critical assets and supply chain operations. From March 2015 to March 2016, she was a Logistics Management Analyst in Greenville, South Carolina, providing analytical expertise to optimize logistics processes. She also served as an Item Management Specialist at Warner Robins, Georgia, from October 2010 to March 2015, where she was instrumental in sustaining Air Force readiness through effective item lifecycle management.

A proud US Air Force veteran, Ms. Owens honorably served for 24 years from 1983 to 2007, holding multiple leadership and logistics positions that shaped her as a results-driven and mission-focused leader.

Throughout her distinguished career, Ms. Owens has been recognized as a highly skilled and professional logistician, known for her dedication, attention to detail, and commitment to strengthening logistics capabilities in support of the warfighter.
