

DLA Distribution Guam, Marianas

Mr. Marcus Ridgeway

Deputy Director

Marcus Ridgeway assumed duties as the Deputy Director for Defense Logistics Agency Distribution Guam, Marianas, in May 2026, where he provides strategic leadership and oversight of distribution operations in the Pacific region. Marcus Ridgeway is a logistics and distribution professional with a distinguished career spanning over 19 years with DLA.

Mr. Ridgeway began his federal service journey in June 2007 at DLA Distribution Red River as a Distribution Process Worker. In 2019, he transitioned to DLA Distribution Anniston, where he advanced into leadership roles, including Distribution Process Worker Supervisor, Transportation Officer, and Accountable Property Officer. In 2022, he was appointed Transportation Officer at DLA Distribution Oklahoma, managing cargo operations for the distribution center and Tinker Air Force Base. Prior to his current role, Mr. Ridgeway served as the Operations Chief and Production Manager at DLA Distribution Korea, where he oversaw all aspects of distribution operations in support of U.S. Forces Korea in the Korean Theater of Operations and the site successful training and transition from Distribution Standard System to Warehouse Management System.

Mr. Ridgeway has volunteered for and supported various DLA missions and temporary duty assignments. He volunteered to be on the DLA Rapid Deployment Team from 2020-2022, serving as a Distribution Specialist who provided assessments to determine initial requirements for DLA Distribution Expeditionary Team deployment. He also volunteered for the DLA Real Property Task Force from March 2018 to September 2018, conducting asset inventories at locations including Fort Polk, Redstone Arsenal, Anniston Army Depot, and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. In 2011, he traveled to DLA Distribution Kuwait to assist with Distribution Operations as part of the DLA Distribution Expeditionary team.

As a native of Texarkana, Texas, Marcus graduated from Texas High School as a Texas Scholar and attended Texas A&M University-Texarkana. He is an alumnus of the Defense Civilian Emerging Leader Program . In recognition of his outstanding contributions, Mr. Ridgeway has been awarded the Department of War Performance Award in 2026, the DLA Director Strategic Goals Award in 2025, the DLA Civilian Meritorious Service Award in 2025, the DLA Superior Civilian Service Award in 2022, and the DLA Humanitarian Effort Award in 2018.