

DLA Distribution Bahrain

Cmdr. Joshua G. Langhorne, Supply Corps,
United States Navy
Commander

Commander Joshua Langhorne is currently the commander of Defense Logistics Agency Distribution, Bahrain. Previously he served as Code 430 Future Ops and Plans Officer aboard Fleet Logistics Center Yokosuka, Japan. He was originally from the Philippines and immigrated to the United States in 1992. He studied in Southern Polytechnic State University in Georgia where he received his Bachelor of Science in Business Management. He entered the Naval service in 2005 through the Officer Candidate School Program and attended the Supply Corps Basic Qualification Course in Athens, GA shortly thereafter. He holds a Master of Business Administration from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey with a specialty in Supply Chain Management.

His afloat assignments include Disbursing Officer aboard USS DECATUR (DDG 73), Staff Supply Officer for Commander Seventh Fleet forward deployed in Yokosuka, Japan aboard USS BLUE RIDGE (LCC 19), and as the precommissioning Supply Officer for the 10th San Antonio Class Amphibious Transport Ship USS JOHN P MURTHA (LPD 26) homeported in San Diego, California. His most recent afloat tour was a return aboard the Commander Seventh Fleet Staff as the Deputy N4 Assistant Chief of Staff for logistics, ordnance, and sustainment.

Ashore, his assignments include an internship in the Business Enterprise Management Program and as project manager and deputy for Ordnance Information Systems aboard NAVSUP Business Systems Center in Mechanicsburg, PA. He also served as the Replenishment Officer and Current Operations Officer in the N3 Directorate for Commander Logistics Forces/Commander Task Force 53 in the CENTCOM AOR, Bahrain. He detached from CTF 53 and reported to NAVSUP Fleet Logistics Center, San Diego as Director of the Logistics Support Team where he led over 130 personnel that provided round the clock operational logistics distance support to all Littoral Combat Ships and Zumwalt Class Destroyers in the Indo-Pacific Theater.

Commander Langhorne is designated as a Surface Warfare Supply Corps Officer. His awards include two Meritorious Service Medals, four Navy Commendation Medals, two Navy Achievement Medals, and various campaign and unit awards. He is a fully qualified Department of the Navy Acquisition Professional Member with a Level II DAWIA certification in Program Management and Level I certification in Life Cycle Logistics while having earned 1302Q (Supply Chain Management) and 1309S (IT Logistics) subspecialties.