

DLA Distribution Norfolk, Virginia

Mr. Mark E. Creekmore

Deputy Commander

Mark E. Creekmore, a native of Virginia Beach, Virginia, became the deputy commander of Defense Logistics Agency Distribution Norfolk, Virginia, in August 2022. He graduated from Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Virginia, in 1984 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in history and political science.

Creekmore was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force in 1985, retiring after 28 years of service. In 1992, he earned his Masters Degree in international relations and economic trade from Troy University.

Prior to his current position, Creekmore served as senior program analyst and chief of transportation at DLA Distribution Headquarters in New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, from October 2011 through October 2016.

His initial duty station in the Air Force was at 728 Tactical Control Squadron, Tactical Air Command, Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, where he served as a transportation officer and was awarded the TAC Transportation Officer of the Year in 1987. He retired from his last assignment as a qualified Air Force master logistics readiness officer on the Air Staff A4, at Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland. He was a qualified joint officer and is DAWIA Level II qualified in logistics and acquisition.

Creekmore's personal awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal (one device), Meritorious Service Medal (two devices), Air Force Commendation Medal (two devices) and National Defense Service Medal (one device).

