

DLA Distribution Pearl Harbor, Hawaii

Ms. Debra Simpson

Deputy Commander

Debra Simpson has served as the deputy commander of Defense Logistics Agency Distribution Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, since December, 2019. Simpson initially joined DLA Energy in June, 2011 as branch chief, financial programs liaison, Finance Directorate and in May 2013 assumed the position of chief, fuels support branch, Finance Directorate. She then served as branch chief, program analysis and master planning/deputy sustainment, Restoration and Modernization Division, DLA Energy. She was responsible for managing the SRM Division's logistical, distribution, engineering, statistical and financial data in support of over 500 military installations worldwide with a real property value in excess of $37 billion.

Prior to joining DLA, Simpson held a variety of positions including construction engineer for GP Homes Powell's Landing Community Association, Woodbridge, Virginia and Prince William County Liaison, Woodbridge District, Woodbridge, Virginia; chief, Information Technology Architecture Synchronization Division, Army deputy chief of staff, G2 Headquarters Department of the Army and assistant chief of staff for Force Modernization, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, Fort Belvoir, Virginia.; executive officer and models and simulations officer, Army Deputy Chief of Staff, G2, HQ Department of Army, Command, Control Communications, Computers and Intelligence (C41) integration officer for Intelligence Information Management, Washington D.C.; and branch chief, Tactical Intelligence Readiness Training Program, INSCOM, Training and Exercise Division, Fort Belvoir, Virginia.

Simpson holds a Master of Business Administration, University of Maryland, University College, Maryland and a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Applied Psychology, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia. Her professional training includes: Army Management Staff College, Army Command and General Staff College, Department of Defense Contracting Officer Representative Course, Equal Employment Opportunity Consulting Officer Course, Department of the Army Staff Officer Course, Contracting Officers Course, Appropriation Laws and Network Infrastructure Architecture and Statistics. Simpson is also a certified Defense Financial Manager.