GLOSSARY

PART I. ABBREVIATIONS AND ACRONYMS

A listing of abbreviations and acronyms is mandatory for issuances over two pages.

DLAI	DLA Instruction
DO	DLAHQ's, Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity
EEO	Equal Employment Opportunity
EEOC	Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
MSC	Major Subordinate Command

PART II. DEFINITIONS

ADR. Use of any procedure as an alternative to formal legal proceedings to resolve conflicts in the workplace. Forms of ADR include facilitation, conciliation, partnering, mediation, arbitration, or the use of ombuds.

Defensive Function. The role and responsibility of litigating and defending the agency. DLA's Legal Counsel typically performs this function.

Discrimination. Illegal treatment of a person or group based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, genetic information, and retaliation against individuals that have engaged in protected EEO activity. Discrimination occurs when an individual, or group of individuals are singled out and treated differently because of their diverse characteristics. These characteristics include race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, and genetic information. Sex-based discrimination also includes pregnancy, sexual orientation, sex stereotyping, and gender identity, to include transgender status. Retaliation against individuals that have engaged in protected EEO activity is also strictly prohibited.

DLAI. An instruction that establishes policy, assigns responsibilities, and prescribes procedures.

MD-110. EEOC's Management Directive that provides federal agencies with Commission policies, procedures, and guidance relating to the processing of employment discrimination complaints governed by the Commission's regulations in 29 C.F.R. Part 1614.

Settlement Official. A settlement official is management official appointed to take part in settlement discussions or mediation. A settlement authority is presumed to be objective, have actual authority over the matters in dispute, and can enter a binding settlement agreement for the Agency. Usually, the responsible management official or Agency official directly involved in the complaint should not be the settlement official.
