Procurement Technical Assistance Program

PTAC Support to Government Acquisition Organizations

The Procurement Technical Assistance Program \(PTAP\) was established to expand the number of businesses capable of participating in government contracts. The program is administered by DLA's Office of Small Business Programs in cooperation with states, local governments and nonprofit organizations.

Under the program, Procurement Technical Assistance Centers \(PTACs\) are a nationwide network of procurement professionals who help businesses compete for and perform contracts with the Department of Defense, other federal agencies, state and local governments and with government prime contractors.

WHERE ARE PTACS LOCATED?

PTACs have a local presence in 49 states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, Guam, The Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and in regions established by bureau of the U.S. Department of Interior. Some PTACs specialize in assistance to federally recognized tribes and their members.

You can find PTACs using the interactive map on the DLA Small Business website at www.dla.mil/smallbusiness.

HOW THE PTAC CAN ASSIST YOUR LOCAL, STATE OR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AGENCY?

- Provide a facility and audience to receive training on agency acquisition forecasts or special requirements such as safety, badging, web-based applications, or specific bid requirements
- Host matchmaking events where businesses and government meet to discuss future contracting opportunities or where small and large businesses meet to partner on government contracts
- Identify small and large businesses who provide specific product or services
- Provide a facility and audience for pre/post-proposal conferences and industry outreach events
- Embed with Contracting office to facilitate SAM registration in contingency environments

2021 PTACs BY THE NUMBERS

- PTACs reported 56,729 active clients
- PTACs provided 183,455 hours of counseling with large and small businesses
- PTACs hosted 5,267 events
- PTAC clients were awarded $24,121,507,410 in government contracts and subcontracts
