Procurement Technical Assistance Program

PTAC Support to Government Acquisition Organizations

The Procurement Technical Assistance Program \(PTAP\) was established to expand the number of businesses capable of participating in government contracts. The program is administered by DLA's Office of Small Business Programs in cooperation with states, local governments and nonprofit organizations who receive cooperative agreements from DLA.

Under the program, awardees operate Procurement Technical Assistance Centers \(PTACs\); a nationwide network of procurement professionals who help businesses compete for and perform contracts with the Department of Defense, other federal agencies, state and local governments and with government prime contractors.

WHERE ARE PTACS LOCATED?

PTACs have a nationwide presence. Some PTACs specialize in assistance to federally recognized tribes and their members.

You can find PTACs using the interactive map on the DLA Small Business website at www.dla.mil/smallbusiness.

HOW THE PTAC CAN ASSIST YOUR LOCAL, STATE OR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AGENCY?

PTAC services include:

- Providing a facility and audience to receive training on agency acquisition forecasts or special requirements such as safety, badging, web-based applications, or specific bid requirements
- Hosting matchmaking events where businesses and government meet to discuss future contracting opportunities or where small and large businesses meet to partner on government contracts
- Identifying small and large businesses that provide specific products or services
- Providing a facility and audience for pre/post-proposal conferences and industry outreach events
- Embedding with contracting offices to facilitate SAM registration in contingency environments
- Assisting businesses with cybersecurity self-assessments

2019 PTACs BY THE NUMBERS

- PTACs reported 54,824 active clients
- PTACs provided 169,716 hours of counseling with large and small businesses
- PTACs hosted 5,307 events
- PTAC clients won 707,689 government contracts and subcontracts valued at $26,313,618,531
- The PTAC's assistance facilitated the creation or retention of 559,150 jobs
