Procurement Technical Assistance Program

Hands-On Assistance in Government Contracting

The Procurement Technical Assistance Program \(PTAP\) was established to expand the number of businesses capable of participating in government contracts. The program is administered by DLA's Office of Small Business Programs in cooperation with states, local governments and nonprofit organizations.

Under the program, Procurement Technical Assistance Centers \(PTACs\) are a nationwide network of procurement professionals who help businesses compete for and perform contracts with the Department of Defense, other federal agencies, state and local governments and with government prime contractors.

WHERE ARE PTACS LOCATED?

PTACs have a local presence in 49 states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, Guam, The Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and in regions established by the Indian Affairs bureau of the U.S. Department of Interior. Some PTACs specialize in assistance to federally recognized tribes and their members.

You can find your local PTAC using the interactive map on the DLA Small Business website at www.dla.mil/smallbusiness.

DOES IT COST ANYTHING TO BECOME A PTAC CLIENT?

Most PTAC assistance is provided free of charge.

WHAT CAN A PTAC DO FOR YOU?

PTACs provide day-to-day assistance, along with training, to firms seeking to do business with federal agencies and state and local governments in the form of such services as:

- Identifying government agencies that purchase a firm's products or services
- Networking and matchmaking events to meet government buyers and prime contractors
- DLA's Internet Bid Board System (DIBBS)
- Prime & subcontracting opportunities
- Contracting fundamentals
- Helping to prepare bids/proposals
- Pre-award & post-award administration issues
- Locating military and other government specifications and drawings
- Small business programs and certifications
- Cost accounting system compliance
- Cybersecurity clause compliance
- Small Business Innovative Research (SBIR) program information
- Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) program information
