

A large, tan-colored tent is set up on a green lawn. The tent has a peaked roof and is secured with ropes and stakes. A red line is drawn across the tent, starting from a red dot on the left, going up to a red dot on the roof, then down to a red dot on the right, and finally back down to the left. The text "MID SECTION" is written in bold red letters with a white outline, positioned over the right side of the tent. The background shows a brick building and a line of trees.
