

Hall of Fame Inductees

William DiLauro

William DiLauro was inducted into the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia Hall of Fame this twenty-first day of October 2009 for his continuous outstanding mission support from 1967 through 2005. Throughout his illustrious career, Mr. DiLauro's outstanding support to the Department of Defense customers brought recognition to the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia and was instrumental to the Agency's success. His initiatives were critical to the start of the first Prime Vendor contract for pharmaceuticals. He was a key member in the DoD/VA/PHS Shared procurement program; combining purchases, reducing government resources and obtaining substantially lower prices. His entire career was dedicated to providing support to DSCP's customers during national disasters and the various conflicts from the pre-Vietnam build-up to Operation Iraqi Freedom. He has distinguished himself in the contracting arena of the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia as a Contracting Officer and recognized acquisition expert in the Directorate of Medical Materiel. His vast knowledge of contracting concepts and devotion to pursuing excellence in the procurement field has kept the Directorate of Medical Materiel in the logistics vanguard. His abilities were respected by his colleagues both internal and external to the government. Employees who had the privilege of working with him respect him for his willingness to assist all. His legacy will live on forever in the Medical Directorate and the Pharmaceutical Industry and DSCP's customers will continue to reap the benefits of his efforts for many years to come.
