

Hall of Fame Inductees

EDMUND T. HENNESSY

Is inducted into the Defense Industrial Supply Center Hall of Fame this twelfth day of December 1997 for his extraordinary leadership and support as Deputy Director of the Directorate of Contracting and Production and for his continuous outstanding mission support throughout his tenure at DISC from 1973 to 1989. Mr. Hennessy instilled his concept of increased use of procurement assistants in the buying functions. Another contribution was his leadership in the expansion of the use of the Family Grouping of Items concept in which similar items are grouped into one indefinite delivery type contract for solicitation and award. He also pioneered the establishment of a new Automated Small Purchases System Branch to promote the use of automated processes in purchases under $2,500 and to maintain Basic Agreements and Blanket Purchase Agreements.
