

Hall of Fame Inductees

MAJOR GENERAL Gary L. Border UNITED STATES ARMY

is inducted into the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia Hall of Fame this twelfth day of October 2005 for his extraordinary leadership as DSCP's Commander from 2002 through 2003. Under General Border's leadership, DSCP set the standard for productivity and top-notch service within the Defense Logistics Agency. General Border faced the challenges of supporting the Nation's troops in Iraq, while at the same time transforming DSCP to make it more responsive to the warfighters' future requirements. Under his direction, DSCP filled almost 1.1 million requisitions, worth over $1.79 billion, in direct support to the warfighter in Operations ENDURING FREEDOM and IRAQI FREEDOM. His leadership provided inspiration for success, regardless of the obstacles. For this, his command was awarded the prestigious Commander in Chief's Annual Award for Installation Excellence for 2003.
