

The logo consists of a dark blue rectangular box with a thin black border. Inside the box, the words "Hall of Fame Inductees" are written in a white, sans-serif font, centered horizontally and vertically.JOSEPHINE M. BATTAGLIA

Is inducted into the Defense Personnel Support Center Hall of Fame this sixteenth day of June 1995 for her extraordinary assistance and support as Secretary to the Commander – and for her continuous outstanding mission support throughout her tenure at DPSC – from 1955 to 1994. Ms. Battaglia’s dedication and outstanding performance was continuous in one of the most visible positions at DPSC. Maintaining the hectic pace of the position, she consistently and tirelessly produced professional results. She continually demonstrated exceptional knowledge of her ever-changing job – and of the Center’s diverse mission. She was a keystone in maintaining the smooth transitions and operations among the 11 DPSC commanders with whom she served, and exemplified the highest professional example throughout the Command Group and organization.
