

Hall of Fame Inductees

MAE DEVINCENTIS

is inducted into the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia Hall of Fame this sixteenth day of October 2003 for her continuous outstanding mission support from 1975 through 1998. During her 23 years of federal service at the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia, Ms. DeVincentis served as a pioneer and catalyst of innovative business practices in the areas of contracting and electronic commerce. Her hard work and innovative efforts lead directly to the introduction of terms such as "prime vendor, DAPA, and commercial distribution" to the DLA vocabulary. Her efforts to redirect DSCP business to focus on customer oriented support, cost reductions, and industry/government partnerships have left a lasting legacy that guides DSCP's and DLA's daily business practices. She has proven herself an exceptional leader who works closely with all personnel helping them accomplish their individual missions for the good of the organization.
