

Hall of Fame Inductees

MICHAEL HOFFMAN

is inducted into the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia Hall of Fame this eighth day of November 2006 for his continuous outstanding mission support from 1972 through 2003. During his 35 years of Federal Service, Mr. Hoffman directed numerous programs which brought acclaim to DSCP and were instrumental to its success. He consistently demonstrated the highest levels of skill, creativity and leadership, taking on challenges and solving problems. He was a brilliant manager and executive who exemplified the best in what DLA is and what DLA does. His dedication and commitment were not only to supporting the military mission, but also to ensuring the welfare and success of his fellow employees at all levels. Throughout his government career he placed the customer above all else, never forgetting that the only reason we exist as an entity is to support the Warfighter. His abilities were respected by his colleagues both in and outside of the Government. Mr. Hoffman led his staff by example, always retaining his mission focus and sense of humor. His legacy will live on forever at DSCP.
