

Hall of Fame Inductees

ROSE MARIE BADAME

Ms. Rose Marie Badame was inducted into the DSCP Hall of Fame on the thirty-first day of October 2007 for her continuous outstanding mission support to DSCP from 1974-2003. Ms. Badame spent her entire career in support of DSCP and the war fighter. She was a leading force and advocate for providing state-of-the-art service and technology to DSCP and its customers. She was personally available to support the DSCP organization during every crisis and her dedication to the mission was legendary. She expanded the use of Information Technology to improve the overall productivity of DSCP. The systems and applications that she deployed enabled all employees to provide the best possible service to the war fighter on behalf of DSCP commodities. As a result of her unparallel technological skills and leadership trait, DSCP senior leadership team consistently looked to her for insight and guidance. She was a leader dedicated to improving the overall readiness of DSCP.
