

Hall of Fame Inductees

RICHARD HUSSER

Is posthumously inducted into the Defense Personnel Support Center Hall of Fame this eleventh day of July 1996 for his extraordinary leadership and support as Chief of the Clothing & Textiles Branch of the Clothing & Textiles Directorate – and for his continuous outstanding mission support throughout his tenure at DPSC – from 1963 to 1994. Mr. Husser spearheaded a number of innovative buying initiatives. He led the first implementation of DPSC’s Best Value Buying Practices which was used as a model throughout the Defense Logistics Agency. His expert leadership helped create C&T’s electronic data interchange program which would later lead to DPSC receiving a number of prestigious awards. During the Persian Gulf War, he developed contracts in record time to help ensure that America’s servicemen and women had sufficient protective clothing. For this he won DLA’s Meritorious Civilian Service Award.
