

Hall of Fame Inductees

MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM T. McLEAN UNITED STATES ARMY (RET)

Is inducted into the Defense Industrial Supply Center Hall of Fame this twelfth day of December 1997 for his extraordinary leadership and support as DISC's 16th Commander from July 1984 to June 1987. General McLean's dynamic leadership, quality management initiatives, and superior decision-making accomplished significant center savings of $18 million through the implementation of innovative productivity systems, value engineering programs and competition. He strategic planning initiatives achieved record improvements in supply availability, backorder reductions, quality assurance, customer support, and optimum weapon system readiness status for forces worldwide.