

Hall of Fame Inductees

BRIGADIER GENERAL J.A. YOGI MANGUAL UNITED STATES ARMY, RETIRED

is inducted into the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia Hall of Fame for his extraordinary leadership and support as the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia's third commander from 2000 through 2002. Under General Mangual's leadership, the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia set the standard for productivity and top-notch service within DLA. He removed organizational barriers that separated the Department of Defense and Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Materiel Support programs which resulted in the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia being named a finalist in the 2002 Excellence in Government award. He supervised the execution of a memorandum of agreement between the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia and the national industries for the severely handicapped to produce state-of-the-art chemical protective suits. Under his direction, the General and Industrial directorate reduced Class IX backorders to the lowest level in three years.
