2. Background: The J.M. Smucker Company is voluntarily recalling specific lots of two varieties of Milo's Kitchen® dog treats, distributed nationally, because the products potentially contain elevated levels of beef thyroid hormone.

Dogs consuming high levels of beef thyroid hormone may exhibit symptoms such as increased thirst and urination, weight loss, increased heart rate and restlessness. These symptoms may resolve when the consumption of these levels is discontinued. However, with prolonged consumption these symptoms may increase in severity and may include vomiting, diarrhea, and rapid or labored breathing. Should these symptoms occur, we recommend pet owners contact their veterinarian immediately.

There has been three illnesses reported involving this product. The voluntary recall is being conducted in cooperation with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

Consumers who have purchased the specific lots of product listed below should stop feeding it to their dogs.
