GENERAL ORDER
NO. 4-87

6 April 1987

I. Authority: DLA-D verbal approval 6 April 1987, Subject: Realignment of Security Trade Control Functions.

II. Pursuant to cited authority and effective 6 April 1987, security trade control functions are realigned from the Sales Divisions of the Defense Reutilization and Marketing Regions (DRMR), Europe and Pacific to the DLA Command Security Support Offices in Europe and the Pacific (DCSO-E and DCSO-H, respectively) and are to be designated Central Units.

III. Security-related functions specifically directed for sales contracting officers by DODI 2030.6, March 20, 1973, are exempt from this transfer and are to continue in the Sales Divisions of DRMR Europe and Pacific.

IV. Administrative support to offices concerned will continue as currently provided.

BY ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR:
