GENERAL ORDER
NO. 46-92

I. AUTHORITY:

A. Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Production and Logistics) Memorandum of December 23, 1991, Subject: Assignment of Additional Mission.

B. DIA-L letter, dated 31 August 1992, subject: Assignment of Additional Mission.

II. Pursuant to cited authority and effective 1 September 1992, the Directorate of Industrial Analysis Support (DCIM-N), is established as an organizational element of the Defense Contract Management District Mid-Atlantic (DCMDM).

III. DCIM-N is established to assess the military services' and Strategic Defense Initiative Organization major weapons acquisition programs through manufacturing, engineering and industrial base analysis. Department of Defense programs are analyzed to determine manufacturing facility and resource requirements. The industrial base is to be evaluated to determine its ability to support current and projected weapon system programs and to identify problem areas and actions required to resolve these issues. DCIM-N supports the acquisition process with the assessment of weapons system and equipment production plans and analysis relative to industrial capabilities and performances.
