GENERAL ORDER FOR ESTABLISHING DEFENSE LOGISTICS AGENCY (DLA)
ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURES TO SUPPORT
BUSINESS SYSTEMS MODERNIZATION (BSM) IMPLEMENTATION

A. DETAILS TO ESTABLISH ORGANIZATIONS

1. DEFENSE SUPPLY CENTER PHILADELPHIA (DSCP)

1.1. Supplier Operations Directorate (DSCP-F)

The Supplier Operations Directorate, established in General Order 3-02, dated June 17, 2002, is being expanded in this General Order to include the following organizations as part of BSM. No existing organizations are being disestablished at this time, because employees still remain. It is expected that the Clothing & Textiles and Subsistence Directorates and the organizations beneath them will be disestablished in a future General Order. In the meantime, new organizations are being established while the old organizations remain.

1.1.1. Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Directorate (DSCP-FQ)

The Director, Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Directorate, reports directly to the Director, Supplier Operations. The Director is responsible for the development, implementation, and oversight of supply planning and supplier management activities for the Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Directorate and its divisions, referred to as a Commodity Business Unit (CBU) and Business Office. Although the Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Directorate was referred to as a CBU in General Order 3-02, it is not in fact a CBU but rather encompasses CBUs, which are detailed below. The following organizational elements are established under the Director, Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Directorate (DSCP-FQ):

1.1.1.1. Clothing & Textiles Supplier Recruit Clothing Commodity Business Unit (CBU) (DSCP-FQA)

The Chief, Clothing & Textiles Supplier Recruit Clothing CBU reports directly to the Director, Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Directorate. The DSCP-FQA Chief is the principal advisor and assistant to the commander in directing the accomplishment of worldwide mission responsibilities through integrated material management and control of assigned items to provide for integrated logistics support of weapons systems, troops, equipment, facilities, and their components.

1.1.1.1.1. Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Product Branch (DSCP-FQAA)

The Supervisor, Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Product Branch, reports directly to the CBU Chief for Recruit Clothing. The Supervisor is responsible for meeting production metrics/Key Performance Indicators (KPI), achieving supplier Service Level Agreements (SLA), supporting the customer facing organizations of the Integrated Customer Teams developing and implementing innovative supply support solutions, providing acquisition, and logistics support to authorized activities for assigned items to its branch.

1.1.1.1.1.1. Battle Dress Uniforms (BDU) Supplier Operations Section (DSCP-FQAAA)

The Supervisor, Battle Dress Uniforms, Supplier Operations, reports directly to the Supervisor, Clothing & Textiles Supplier Operations Products Branch. The Supervisor of the BDU Section is responsible for meeting production metrics/KPIs, achieving supplier SLAs, supporting the customer facing organizations of the Integrated Customer Teams, providing acquisition, and logistics support to authorized activities for assigned items.

1.1.2. Subsistence Supplier Operations Directorate (DSCP-FT)

The Director, Subsistence Supplier Operations Directorate, reports directly to the Director, Supplier Operations. The Director is responsible for the development, implementation, and oversight of supply planning and supplier management activities for the Subsistence Supplier Operations Directorate and its divisions, referred to as CBUs, the Produce Services Office and the Business Office. The following organizational elements are established under the Director, Subsistence Supplier Operations Directorate:

1.1.2.1. Commodity Business Units:

Food Service (DSCP-FTA)

Operational Rations (DSCP-FTR)

Produce (DSCP-FTP)

The Chief, Subsistence CBU (-FTA, -FTR, or -FTP), reports directly to the Director, Subsistence Supplier Operations Directorate. The Chief is the principle advisor and assistant to the Director in directing the accomplishment of worldwide mission responsibilities through integrated material management and control of assigned items to provide for integrated logistics support of weapons systems, troops, equipment, facilities, and their components.

1.1.2.1.1. Product Branches:
